I.- OBJECTIVE

In order to facilitate participation in the Camino portugués de Santiago: a cultural heritage for the new Europe International Congress, the organisers offer 12 grants to cover meals and accommodation to those students and doctoral-students non-residents of the municipalities in which the activity will take place and who wish to participate. This international congress will be held in Tui (Spain), Valença do Minho (Portugal) and Santiago de Compostela (Spain) from 14 to 16 November 2019.

II.- Grants

Accommodation. Accommodation in University de Santiago de Compostela and Tui will be covered from the 13 November until the morning of 17 November 2019. During their stay in Santiago de Compostela, accommodation will be provided in the residences of the University de Santiago de Compostela.

Meals. The grants include three meals during the celebration of the academic activity from 14 to 16 November 2019, as well as the breakfast on 17 November 2019.

III.- SUBMISSION OF APPLICATIONS

Those interested in applying for a grant must submit the following documents:

a) Online application form.
b) Scanned copy of the identity card or passport.
c) Declaration of commitment and responsibility.

The deadline for the submission of applications is 2 November 2019.

Grants
Camino portugués de Santiago: a cultural heritage for the new Europe International Congress
14 – 16 November 2019
IV.- SELECTION CRITERIA

a) Affinity of the candidate's education with the topics addressed in the academic activity.
b) First come first served basis.
c) Geographical distribution.

V.- PUBLICATION OF THE RESOLUTION

The resolution of the grants will be published on 5 November 2019 on the website of the Compostela Group of Universities (www.gcompostela.org).

The resolution will contain the ordered list of the beneficiaries of the grants as well as ten alternates.

VI.- AWARDING OF THE GRANT

In order to be awarded the grants, the selected candidates must follow these steps:

a) To certify the education undertaken and declared.
b) Accept expressly the grant by sending an email to grupo.compostela@usc.es.
c) Provide an invoice or proof of the reservation of the journey to Santiago de Compostela and its payment in this same email.

The candidates will have until 8 November 12:00 AM (GMT+1) to complete these steps. If these documents are submitted by the deadline, the right to fill the vacancy with the alternates will be deemed.

In Santiago de Compostela on 17 October 2019.

Grants
Camino portugués de Santiago: a cultural heritage for the new Europe International Congress
14 – 16 November 2019